Work For The Night Is Coming

Work, for the night is coming,
Work through the morning hours;
Work while the dew is sparkling,
Work ’mid springing flow’rs.

Work when the day grows brighter,
Work in the glowing sun;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man’s work is done.

Work, for the night is coming,
Work through the sunny noon;
Fill brightest hours with labor,
Rest comes sure and soon.

Give every flying minute
Something to keep in store;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man works no more.

Work, for the night is coming,
Under the sunset skies;
While their bright tints are glowing,
Work, for daylight flies.

Work till the last beam fadeth,
Fadeth to shine no more;
Work, while the night is dark’ning,
When man’s work is o’er.

Qina, Bu Yeza Ubusuku

Qina ku yez’ ukuhlwa; Qin’ imin’ i khona.
Namazol’ a sekhana; Imbal’ i hluma;
Ku se khon’ ukukhanya, Qin’ imin’ i khona;

PRESIDENT’S WELCOME REMARKS

Christian greetings to my young people and the 2019 teachers!
It is my personal joy that God has given us another time as His people to meet with Him at this year’s camp-meeting. I want to congratulate and thank you for coming. As you gather at this important meeting I pray that you be revived and never go back home the same.
The future of this church lies in you and I am personally happy to have you at this year’s camp-meeting. Among you are the church elders, pastors, shepherdesses, medical missionary workers and future leaders of this church.

Pastor T C Rukuni

E G White says.... With such an army of workers as our youth, rightly trained, might furnish, how soon the message of a crucified, risen, and soon-coming Saviour might be carried to the whole world! How soon might the end come—the end of suffering and sorrow and sin! How soon, in place of a possession here, with its blight of sin and pain, our children might receive their inheritance where “the righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein forever”; where “the inhabitant shall not say, I am sick,” and “the voice of weeping shall be no more heard.”—Education, 271. (MYP 196.1)...You are the right people to finish the gospel journey as young people. I hope 2019 camp-meeting will help you to be the best children in this world and the world to come.

I want to also thank all the teachers who will spend the week with our children. God bless you.
The work you are doing is highly esteemed and only heaven can thank you enough.

Let’s prepare for the camp-meeting offering to be collected on Sabbath. Deuteronomy 16:16-17,Three times a year all man shall appear before the Lord your God at the place he will choose, at the feast of unleavened bread, the feast of weeks and the feast of Tabernacles. No man should appear before the Lord empty-handed. Even children are included in this call so plan to participate as young people

God bless all the young people and the teachers

With Warm Christian regards

The Savior's Second Coming
Parable of the Talents - drama

The Parable of the Talents uses a narrator and 4 actors. This short drama skit was based on Matthew 25:14-20 concerning the second coming of Christ. It was originally written to be presented to children.

(Narrator enters.)

Narrator: Jesus talked a lot about his return. In the Bible there are many times when Jesus told his disciples parables to explain his second coming. In Matthew, Jesus tells the parable of the talents. It's about a man who went on a journey.

(FARMER BROWN enters)

Brown: I think I'll go on a journey.

Narrator: He called his servants together and trusted his property to them.

Brown: Hey! Servants! Come here! (SERVANTS 1, 2 and 3 enter. They run in and line up in that order.)

Servant 1: You called?

Brown: Yes. I'm going on a journey and I want you to take care of my stuff. (To SERVANT 1) I'm giving you 5 talents. (BROWN pulls 5 coins out of his pocket and gives them to SERVANT 1. Count them out. Then, turn to SERVANT 2) I'm giving you 2 talents. (Does the same thing, then looks at SERVANT 3) And I'm giving you 1 talent. (All others freeze)

Servant 3: What's a talent?

Narrator: It's like money. But it can represent anything that God gives you to take care of.

Servant 3: Like what?

Narrator: Well, like your possessions, you know, your toys and books. And the talents that God gave you, like your ability to sing or draw.

Servant 3: Oh, I think I get it. (Others unfreeze)

Brown: Care for these carefully while I am gone. (He exits.)

Servant 3: What do I do with this?

Servant 1: We must be faithful servants.

Servant 2: That's right, we want to make Farmer Brown proud of us.

Narrator: The man who had received 5 went right to work and gained 5 more. (SERVANT 1 exits) The person who got 2 also gained 2 more. (SERVANT 2 exits) But the person who received 1 went off, dug a hole in the ground and hid it in the ground. (SERVANT 3 pretends to dig a hole and puts the coin in it. She exits) After a long time (sign "A LONG TIME" is held up) the master returned. (FARMER BROWN ENTERS)

Brown: Well, let’s see how my servants did. HEY! Servants! Come here! (SERVANTS 1, 2 & 3 enter. They run in and line up in that order.)

Servant 1: Master, you gave me 5 talents. See, I have gained 5 more. (SERVANT 1 counts out 10 coins into BROWN’s hand.)

Brown: Well done good and faithful servant. You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master’s happiness.

Servant 2: Master, you gave me 2 talents. See, I have gained 2 more. (SERVANT 2 counts out 4 coins into BROWN’s hand.)

Brown: Well done good and faithful servant. You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master’s happiness.

Servant 3: Master, I knew that you are a hard man, harvesting where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed. So I was afraid and went out and hid the talent in the ground. See here is what belongs to you. (Hands him the coin)

Brown: You wicked, lazy servant. You should have put this on deposit in the bank. At least I would have gained interest. Throw that worthless servant outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. (SERVANTS 1 & 2 “toss” SERVANT 3 offstage) Come, let’s all celebrate. (All exit except for NARRATOR.)

Narrator: Jesus is coming back. Let’s use the things he’s given us. (NARRATOR exits.)
